Dear Mrs Williams,

Town and Country Planning Act 1990
Appeal by MR Mark Redmond
Site Address: Bridewell House, Chester Road, Rossett, WREXHAM, LL12 0HN

The Inspector appointed by the Welsh Ministers to determine the above appeal is

K Sheffield BA (Hons) DipTP MRTPI

The Inspector will visit the site at 8.30 on Tuesday 28th March 2017.

Local Planning Authority. A representative of the local planning authority should not attend the site visit. The Inspector will carry out the site visit alone. The appellant or their representative will be present at the site visit solely to provide adequate access to the site.

Appellant. As the appellant or the appellant's appointed representative, it is important that you make immediate arrangements for the Inspector to be met to allow entry to the appeal site. If you cannot do this yourself, you should arrange for someone else to do so in your place. A representative from the local planning authority will not attend the site inspection, and your presence is required solely to provide adequate access to the site.

The purpose of the site visit is to view the site and surroundings in the context of the written material provided on the appeal. No representations or discussion of the grounds of refusal or merits of the case will be permitted at this visit.

The decision letter will be issued as soon as possible after the date of the Inspector's site visit.

Yours sincerely,

Phil Smith
