Details of the pre-application advice received

I write to confirm with you that as the application was made valid after the permission had lapsed, that therefore there are no live conditions that can be varied and as such a new householder application for the proposal would have to be submitted. This application is likely to be approved.

I would be grateful therefore, if this current application were withdrawn. As an error has unfortunately been made by the Council in not making it invalid, we would agree to waive the fee in this instance and transfer over the fee already paid. No fee would be required to be paid. But only on the basis that the application is withdrawn. If it has to be determined and refused then a new fee will need to be paid for the new application. I apologise for this error and the inconvenience that this has caused.
