Access Statement:

During the proposed works, all deliveries and trade access will be via the alleyway on the left-hand side of the building. Materials will be transported using pump trucks from delivery vehicles to the site via this side access. Pedestrian and vehicle access to the property will remain unchanged, as there is no vehicular access to the site. The development will continue to rely on on-street parking, consistent with the existing arrangement for other properties on High Street.