Dear Mr & Mrs Wrigley

It was lovely to meet you and thank you for giving Mid Wales Windows & Conservatories the opportunity to speak to you about your home improvement plans. We're certain we can add real value to your project and deliver a seamless and stress-free home improvement experience.

As promised, please find enclosed your quotation – please do contact me if you have any questions and I'll be happy to discuss further with you.

At Mid Wales, we've been delivering first-class home improvements since 1994 and we're proud to deliver an excellent service in and around Mid Wales and borders.

We only use the finest materials, coupled with qualified designers, first class project management and skilled trades people on every job, to ensure Mid Wales excellence. To give you added peace of mind, we offer a comprehensive guarantee with all our products and installations - with the confidence of knowing that we will be here on hand if you ever need to use it.

Whilst you consider our quotation on the following page, we'd be delighted to welcome you to our showroom to experience our fantastic range of windows, doors and living spaces. And of course, our friendly sales team are on-hand to answer any questions you might have.

I look forward to hearing from you, and please contact me on 01686 628650 if you have any questions.

Yours sincerely,

James Wilde

Consumer Feedback Report

Mid Wales Windows & Conservatories Ltd

Survey Results 01/04/2023 to 30/06/2023 Inclusive

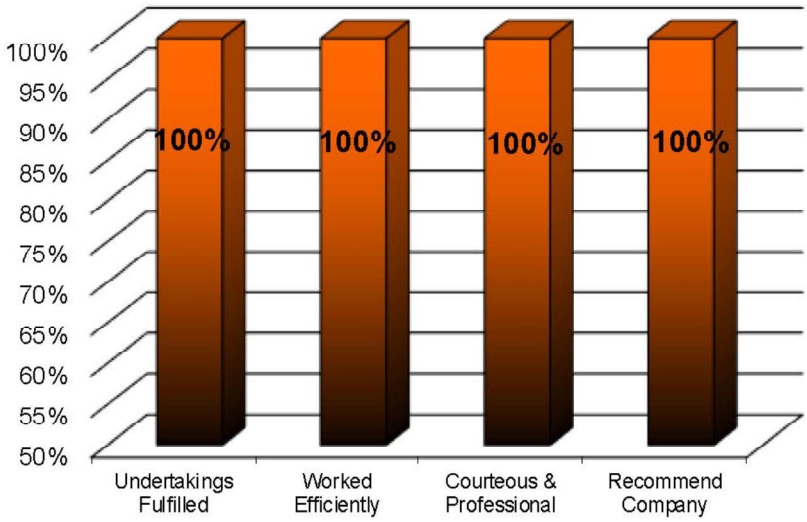

The Consumer Protection Association believes that it is vital to evaluate both the professionalism and quality of every member's work and the most effective means of establishing this is by asking their customers what they thought.

The chart to the left displays the scores customers awarded the company in respect of their overall performance. These scores are supplied by all customers when they apply for their Insurance Backed Guarantee upon completion of their home improvements.

We also ask customers to appraise how they found their dealing with the member with regards to specific issues. The analysis of the survey is contained in the graph to the right.

The purpose of the survey is to assist our members in maintaining and where possible, improving their standards of professionalism, quality and service.

Customer confidentiality has been respected throughout.

Terms and Conditions

1) We Mid Wales Windows & Conservatories, agree to sell you (The Customer) and when applicable to install at the address nominated by you overleaf, the items specified in the schedule overleaf, you agree to purchase and accept the delivery of the said goods.

2) All terms of the contract between the customer and the company are contained in this document. No representation or warranty is made or given by the company save as appears herein. No variation of or addition to the work specified in the schedule overleaf shall have the effect unless agreed in writing under the signature of a duly authorised officer of the company.

3) The customer shall grant the company's employees access to the premises at reasonable times for the purpose of taking measurements and of carrying out the work specified to completion.

4) The company guarantees to repair, or replace free of charge, any defective unit installed by them for an agreed period of 10 years from the date of contract. This does not cover wear or breakages. All goods remain the property of the company until full payment is made.

5) The removal and replacement of curtains, blinds and pelmets, etc. unless included in the charge of this contract, is the responsibility of the customer. Brass fittings, where supplied are lacquered finish. In time this lacquer will tarnish. It is the responsibility of the customer to clean and re-lacquer these items themselves.

6) The customer agrees that the items specified in the schedule have been checked by them and that they acknowledge that the schedule is correct. No work shall be done or goods supplied by the company other than specified in the schedule unless previously agreed by us in writing. The contact in no way affects your statutory rights.

7) Subject to formal acceptance by the company this is a binding contract subject to a 7 day cooling off period unless otherwise agreed by the customer (if this is requested and agreed by the company, a fee covering expenses incurred will be payable).The company reserves the right to cancel any order at any time by refunding all monies paid.

8) Drawings and samples are intended to demonstrate the workings of a typical window or door and of the materials used. The items used to fulfil this order will be manufactured and fitted in the way the company considers most suitable after measuring and inspection by its survey department the size of the window openings will be determined by the company unless these are supplied in writing by the customer. If at the time of measuring it is found to be impossible to carry out the work contracted for, the company reserves the right to either vary the contact or cancel some and return all monies paid up to the time of cancellation.

9) All glass shall be of good quality, but glass manufacturers will not guarantee against minor imperfections and the company cannot be held responsible for such imperfections should they occur. No guarantee is given on the optical quality of laminated or toughened glass. All defects must be reported to the company in writing within 3 days of installation.

10) Where goods are sold on a 'supply only' basis the price does not include fixings and sealants necessary to complete that installation. Sizes supplied other than in writing to the company are the responsibility of the customer and no claims will be accepted against the company.

11) The company will do its utmost to arrange for the installation to be carried out in the time quoted. The company cannot be held responsible for delays due to causes beyond its control. The company shall not be liable for any consequential loss howsoever arising. You undertake that you will permit installation to take place within a reasonable period after the date of this contract. If within seven days of the advice of the intent to install, an imminent appointment has not been fixed the balance of the purchase price is then due and payable.

12) The company shall not be liable for any unforeseen faults or damage which may be found or occur as a result of old doors and windows being renewed. Any such additional building work which may become necessary as a result of such removals will be the customer’s responsibility and you will bear the cost of such building work.

13) The balance referred to in the agreement becomes due on delivery to your premises of the goods which form the schedule. The balance is payable on installation and may not be withheld for any reason: Mid Wales Windows & Conservatories can only investigate any alleged defect after full payment of the balance has been received. Any overdue account will incur interest at not less than current bank lending rate plus full administration costs. Cheques should be made payable to: Mid Wales Windows & Conservatories and be crossed.

14) The company will make good damage to plaster and rendering caused in the course of the installation, external making good to be sand and cement, pebbles as necessary and internal to be in plaster to a prepared finish. The company will not be responsible for any damage howsoever caused to ceramic tiles, floor boards, skirting boards, wall paper or other decorative finish.

15) No Guarantee or warranty is given that the installation will reduce, eliminate or be free of condensation.

16) No neglect or forbearance on our part in endeavoring to enforce our rights hereunder shall be construed as a waiver of any such rights, nor shall your rights be in any way affected thereby.

17) Any guarantee or other representation or undertaking relating either to the items specified in this schedule or any work in connection with this contract shall not be considered valid unless confirmed in writing and signed by a duly authorised officer of the company.
