Biodiversity net gain

The proposal is expected to have minimal to no impact on the existing green infrastructure, given the proposal's location on the existing hardscaping area. Any impact caused by the proposal will be reinstated after use. This includes the reinstating of grass or any planting where needed.