

Photos looking from the proposed new building location towards the listed building

1

2

Photos from the north and east to clearly express the relationship of the new buildings and the historic

3

4

Photos from the south, from along the public footpath where it will be possible to see the new in conjunction with the historic.

3

3

