

I still contest along with homeowners on and around bethania road that the infrastructure and narrowness of the road cannot cope with the extra volume of traffic...there have been many accidents and near misses in the past on the corner for the turn too delph road so adding extra volume of unnecessary traffic is ludicrous...as i stated no doubt money talks and the development will go ahead but im sure you wouldnt allow it in your neighbour hood....