Hiya Sharon,

The extension is to the rear of the building, I think the confusion has come from the elevations being labelled wrong, I have corrected them and attached the PDF. Apologies for the confusion.

Please let me know if you require any further information.

Kind Regards,

Dear Emily,

I refer to the recently submitted application at the above address. Can I just confirm with you that the proposed extension is to the front of the building, its not clear from the site plan which is the front elevation or where the access to the site is.

Thanks

Sharon
