

Picture showing the area of the cattle dispersal yard where the roof covering will be placed.

Picture showing the bottom end of the cattle dispersal area, showing the crash barriers to the right which form part of the slurry pit to be covered. The applicant states that the proposed roof will be approx. 500mm above these barriers.

An example picture provided by the applicant of the building type to be used for the construction of the slurry pit covering.