Subject: Re: Wallington Cottage - Planning Application

Dear Cerys,

I think I know what has happened. There appears to be two Wallington Cottages. My application follows on from WOR P/2021/0151 which was decided on 15th April this year. The original Wallington Cottage was demolished by my client to make way for a replacement dwelling under code WOR 21534. I discovered that there is another Wallington Cottage down the road and on the opposite site when a chap phoned me up a few weeks ago. It was for sale and he wanted to know about the application recently approved in April because he thought it was for the cottage he wanted to buy. It appears that this cottage has been renamed as Wallington Cottage. Once this replacement dwelling has been constructed I think one of the owners will have to change the name or there is going to be confusion.

Hope this clarifies the situation.

Further to the telephone call to Sharon earlier the above application is currently invalid because the Location plan does not seem to match the address.

Can you please clarify the address.

Thank you Cerys
