

Design and Access Statement

As confirmed by Sharon Williams from the Wrexham County Borough Council Planning Department, a Design and Access Statement is not required for this application. Please refer to the Heritage Impact Statement for further details on the proposed development.