Dear Mr Isted,

RE: APPLICATION FOR LISTED BUILDING CONSENT: TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, KING STREET, WREXHAM,

Thank you for notifying us of this application for listed building consent for various alterations.

The remit of the Royal Commission permits us to comment only on the historical significance and context of a monument or structure and on the adequacy or otherwise of the record. Trinity Presbyterian Church was listed for its special interest as an Edwardian brick-built chapel retaining good period detail. The proposed alterations from the information provided do not appear to significantly affect the architectural interest of this listed building.

Yours sincerely,

RICHARD SUGGETT
