Sharon,

This e-mail is about the Southsea site and is about the appeal. Should it be forwarded to the Inspectorate?

Subject: travellers

Dear sirs/madam

I have already appealed about the travellers new application but I am now informing you that the noise is gradually getting worse. The problem is - is that everytime they put in for another application the noise gets increasingly worse with more children arriving on the site, dogs, and more strangers.

Please can someone realise the impact they are having on our community. My mother has ended up in a care home due to the stress of all of this, continuous bare back fighting and shouting and police visits. children screaming, dogs attacking people, dogs barking into the night and early morning, car horns being sounded early hours of the morning, generally making them a public nuisance.

Not to mention the letters I am having addressed to my address but for loans, car loans, washing machines purchased, all types but named Margaret Delaney or Andrew cash. I am inundated and then I had paramedics coming to my house and police due to them. I even had a lady come here to tag me?

I could not believe it that I was actually being asked to be tagged until I said I AM NOT MARGARET DELANEY.

Surely this must make a difference to the decision.
