Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for consulting us on the above application, which we received on the 7th March 2016.

So long as any permission includes the conditions that we requested within our previous responses to the development during the original planning application (under the Environment Agency and Countryside Council for Wales), we would have no objection.

Please find attached our response to the above application, if you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regards,

Gareth Thomas
