Dafydd,

Mark's doesn't suggest the size of tile in his email. I confirm therefore that my approval of the proposed Thrutone fibre cement tile is conditional upon it being the blue/black 300m x 600m.

Sharon

Sharon,

Had conformation from the client that is the correct one, as suggested by Mark West in his email.

Hi Rich

Just a thought, have you considered the Thrutone slates?

James has some stock at Whitchurch and we have supplies at stores and other branches, so availability wouldn't be such an issue.

Price wise they would fall in between the Modern Duo and Edgemere Duo

See page 12 and 13 on the link below for more details
