Sharon

I can confirm that Wed 11th May is acceptable.

I have spoken to Alison Heine, and she confirms that both dates were ok with her.

The venue has been booked, and it is: Committee Room 2, Wrexham County Borough Council, The Guildhall, Wrexham, LL11 1AY.

Regards
Janet

Janet/Alison.

The Inspector has come up with two possible dates which his programme will accommodate - Wednesday 11th May and Tuesday 17th May. Would you like to discuss them with each other and let me know which you would prefer to go with.

Janet. Would you also let me have details of the venue for the new date.

Regards.

Phil.

Phil,
Although I can make the appeal on that day, and our usual meeting room accommodation is fully booked for the 19th.
I have checked other dates, and there is room all day on Monday 18th up until 04.30pm if that helps.

Regards
Janet

'Morning Alison.

I'm not unhappy about moving the hearing to w/c 18th April, but we do need to bear in mind that that is the run up to Easter. Consequently, it would be a much safer bet to go for Tuesday 19th, rather than any later in the week.

Janet. Could you confirm that this would be ok with your side, and also whether there would be any resulting change to the proposed venue.

If you would both be good enough to get back to me asap I would be very grateful as I won't be able to retain a reserve in the inspector's programme for very long.

All the best.

Phil.

Hi Phil (copy Janet)

Unfortunately I can not make the 7th April for this hearing as I am in a three day Inquiry in Bedfordshire on 6-8th after a one day hearing in Flintshire on the 5th - so have no spare days that week. I have also been asked to keep the following week free in case the Bedfordshire appeal runs over so am not free until week beginning 18th April.

After that my diary is free at present. My clients have a court case on 20 April so we need to keep that free but I could do 19th April or any other date after that - but I do have other appeals awaiting dates.

Janet - could you possibly advise when you would be free.
Alison Heine
