Dear Sharon,

Please find attached photographs of the existing site area proposed for the expansion car park.

The photos identify the existing hedges and small trees to the front of the site which are to be retained. You will note that the area of hedge to be removed (on image 2095) to form the internal access to the expansion car park is not of great size or length and does not include any trees.

It is also important to note that the group of trees to be retained are a mixture of 'hedge' species and conifers.

Regards

Matthew Gregory
