Dear Simon

1) The agricultural holding is 12 acres or thereabouts. We also have a long term agreement to rent an additional 6 acres directly opposite the property. We are also in the process of signing a lease for an further 47 acres in Rhosddu.

2) Presently we have 4 horses, 9 cows, 6 of which are in calf due in July/August which would take the number to 15, we aim to increase this herd in the summer to 30 cattle once the land in Rhosddu is agreed. The cattle are currently being kept on neighbouring farm for the winter months, they are due back to Bryn Villa in May weather permitting. 2 of our horses are currently on loan until August.

3) The additional building is required for the storage of hay that we anticipate being able to harvest from the 18 acres that we own/rent, and partly to house the cows and calves during the winter months when grazing isn't possible. The harvested hay will be used for feed of our own livestock. The agricultural shed that we have currently is being utilised for the horses and dry feed and will accommodate only some of the cattle.

I hope this is satisfactory - please don't hesitate to contact me for any further information.

Kind regards

Sarah Jones

I refer to your planning application for this proposal.

I should be grateful for the following information, to assist consideration of the proposal:

1. the size of the agricultural holding
2. the numbers and types of livestock
3. the reason for the additional building being required.

Thanks

Simon Greenland
