Hi Mared,

Hope you are doing well.

I have recently submitted a non-material amendment with yourself regarding roof tiles for our site at Home Farm, Llay.

As part of this application, a material layout (Rev K) was submitted. Please can you disregard this layout and use the layout that I have attached to this email (Material Layout Rev L).

As the revision note in the updated layout suggests, the brick types of plots 131, 239 & 362 have been amended to coincide with the approved character areas for the site.

If you have any questions please contact me.

Kind Regards,

Tom
