Dear Sharon,

Happy New Year to you also.

Thank you for the email.

No problems, I can advise as follows:

The proposed new agricultural building will house:

- A tractor and trailer which is currently stored on the hard standing where the shed is to go.
- A dumper which is currently stored in a straw shed on the farm. The shed is needed to house straw and therefore the Dumper will go into the new shed.

I hope that helps

Kind Regards

Charlene
