Description

Broad Class	Period

History
Iscoyd Park was purchased in 1843 by Philip Lake Godsall, a Cheltenham coach builder, an estate of 202 acres (82 hectares) comprising mansion house with park, and cottages and smallholdings. Iscoyd Cottages were built in 1854, replacing earlier cottages shown on estate plans of 1781 and the 1830s. They demonstrate the ambitious programme of rebuilding by the Godsalls that continued for much of the C19.
