Thanks for your consultation.

There is some confusion within the documentation as to whether the application is for the English Wesleyan Chapel or Engedi - the chapels are next door to one another.

We would OPPOSE the demolition of the chapel, which is part of the industrial heritage of Brymbo, notwithstanding the vandalism. It would be preferable to incorporate the chapel within the proposed redevelopment, which would seem a reasonable compromise.

Should you be minded to approve this, we suggest a building recording (including interior) condition be imposed, with the survey submitted to the RCAHMW
