Afternoon Sharon,

Further to email, I have spoken with the client, the entrance barrier they will move the allow suitable distance as required, as this is not a quick resolve, are you able to condition the relocation of the entrance barrier in the planning approval ? The existing signage relating to vehicle access routes are for the current arrangement and use the adjacent building which they will not occupy in the next 12 months, vehicle access will be way of the existing main entrance as shown on the proposed site plan.

Regards,

Matt.
