

To whom it may concern;

Just a very brief email to object to any type of exploratory drilling which could lead to shale gas extraction. This is only to make make business richer at the expense of the countryside and public health.

thanks