To whom it may concern.

I would like to object against the planning application P/2014/0241 on Pont Adam Crescent Ruabon for 49 houses, I live at number 89 and all the traffic will pass my door and with parked cars and buses it will make the roads dangerous, I do not think Church street with all its bridges and narrow sections is suitable for more traffic the school traffic is bad enough and as for the doctors and dentist waiting times more people living here can only make that worse.

Please please use common sense and reject this application and leave the green parts of Wales green.

Yours Faithfully. Robert Braithwaite.
