Mike,

The planning permission has been issued. You will need to confirm what the finish of the windows will be (i.e. paint and point colour) before installing.

Regards

Mike,

It is waiting for the decision to be signed off by my manager. Hopefully this will be later this week.

I have recommended a condition that will require you to confirm how the windows will be finished (e.g. painted and if so what colour) prior to installation

Regards

Matthew Phillips
