What is full fibre technology?

This product uses full fibre technology.

Full fibre broadband uses powerful fibre optic cables to connect your home directly to your local telephone exchange. It's also known as 'fibre to the premises' (FTTP).

Full fibre broadband is different to part fibre and copper broadband, as it doesn't use any copper cables. This means it's more reliable and is capable of faster speeds up to 900Mbps.