Details of the pre-application advice received

Have been advised by Lauren Rowlinson to proceed straight to full planning permission for change of use rather than submitting an application for Lawful Development Certificate as the annexe was already in existence when I bought the property in 2018 and was being used in a similar way to how I use it now - just for family and friends. Lauren has advised that I state how the property will be used: Frequency and duration of short-term lets, maximum number of guests, confirmation that the main dwelling house will remain my principal residence, relationship between annexe and main dwelling, existing parking arrangements and any measures to manage noise etc ..
